Sermon Text: Revelation 21:1-6 (NIV)

21 Then I saw "a new heaven and a new earth," for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and there was no longer any sea. 2 And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride beautifully dressed for her husband. 3 And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "Look! God's home is now among his people! He will live with them and they will be his people. God himself will be with them. 4 He will dry every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away."

5 Then the one seated on the throne said, "I am making everything new!" Then he said, "Write this down, for these words are trustworthy and true."

6 He said to me: "It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. To the thirsty I will give water freely from the spring of the water of life. 7 Those who are victorious will inherit all this, and I will be their God and they will be my children. 8 But the cowards, the unbelieving, the vile, the murderers, the immoral, the sorcerers, the idolaters, and all liars—their portion will be in the lake that burns with fire and sulfur. This is the second death."

Message From Your Pastor

Jeremiah reminds us in Lamentations that God's mercies are new every morning. There are so many days in our lives that just don't go our way. Sometimes we wake up in the morning and we just want to go back to bed. Every day is not as a Christian it is word full of temptation and sin. But there is a promise from God, and that promise is for new mercies every morning. In our lives we have the opportunity to start over every morning. We have forgiveness and opportunities to make it right in the life. He blesses us with a new day and a fresh start each day. The church is sure about what we will do with our lives. We know that God is in control of our lives. We know that God loves us. The choice is yours. As Christians, we must recognize the opportunities that God places before us and seize them. With new mornings and new mercies comes the opportunity to grow closer to God and be a more Christ like person. Let us not let another day pass by with a inward opportunity to get closer to God.

The Best of life is, God is With Us!

Pastor J.R.

Dear Brothers and Sisters at St. Paul's,

I had the opportunity to work with the other men in the Jaime Carey cut construction ministry to help move to great need. The name, Jamie Carey, comes from a ministry in Conway as part of Christ's mission. We have been doing this for 3 years now. We have helped 3 families in need. We have a strong believer. Jamie needed wheelchairs in her trailer to make it usable in order to get her grandchildren back. The need was in horrible shape. It was difficult to believe that a person could live in such terrible conditions. For a couple of days we worked hard to make her home safe for her and her grandkids the trailer. I could see the ground outside. The captain of our team, Frank Ainlee, had led previous teams in order to put on a new roof and exterior. We had to tear off the old roof and exterior. We had to frame in the new roof. We need your help in acquiring the resources to finish. Please review the list of needs below, pray and then, if prompted by the spirit, contribute whatever you can. Please let me know if you can help in any way. Please let me know if you fill contribution to be small. You can put you donation in the offering plate or send it into St. Paul's by check or electronically. Please identify your donation as being for the Jamie Carey Ministry. If you know of anyone who can help with planning, we could sure use such a person. Finally, if any of you want to join the Jamie Gang, we would love to have you. No special skills are required. I am proof that "noobs" are welcome.

Communion Sundays

A REMINDER...
Communion Sunday, usually the first Sunday of every month, you may have noticed little not boxes on the altar table. These boxes are faithfully prepared by Shirley Hutchinson to be used by the volunteers who take communion to those who are unable to attend church because of illness or communion elements. Please let Alice or Minister Carson know if you know of anyone who would like to be a part of the Home Communion Ministry. This has been a very appreciated ministry of St. Paul's Waccamaw for many through the years.

Upcoming Red Cross Blood Drive Quillens Market
