Sermon Text: John 3:16-21 (NIV)

16 For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life. 17 For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through him. 18 Whoever believes in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe stands condemned already because they have not believed in the name of God's one and only Son. 19 This is the verdict: Light has come into the world, but people loved darkness instead of light because their deeds were evil. 20 Everyone who does evil hates the light, and will not come into the light for fear that their deeds will be exposed. 21 But whoever lives by the truth comes into the light, so that it may be seen plainly that what they have done has been done in the sight of God.

Message From Pastor JR

"Every good and perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of the heavenly lights, who does not change like shifting shadows." (James 1:17) As we approach Thanksgiving it is important for us to remind ourselves that all "good" things come from God. God blesses us each and every day with an abundance of good things. It is tempting in our world to fixate on the things we are lacking, but as Christians we are called as Paul to find contentment in all circumstances. Contentment and peace can only be found in relationship with our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Therefore, let us draw nearer to Christ daily. Let us allow the Spirit of God to enter our hearts and minds. Let us then through that Spirit not only find contentment and peace but find eyes to see all of the "good" things that God is pouring into our lives daily. What will result will simply be praise, glory, and thanksgiving to our God!

The Best of All Is...God Is With Us!

As we prepare ourselves for Christmas and the celebration of the Jesus' birth, I encourage everyone to read a chapter of the book of Luke each day in December. If you begin by reading chapter 1 on December 1 you will complete Luke's gospel on Christmas Eve. This is a great way to remind ourselves of Jesus' birth, life, death, and resurrection as we prepare to celebrate Christmas.

Blessings,

Pastor
