FIRST ANNUAL

ST PAUL'S WACCAMAW GOLF TOURNAMENT

WACHESAW EAST

Wednesday, June 11, 2025
Wachesaw East Golf Course
911 Riverwood Drive
Murrells Inlet, SC 29576

The First Annual 2025 St. Paul's Waccamaw Golf Tournament will benefit the Church's mission work

Be part of playing at one of the premier golf courses in Murrells Inlet.

Nestled amid a former rice plantation in Murrells Inlet, Wachesaw East has reaped the awards you'd anticipate from a former LPGA event site. Once the home of the Kathy Ireland/Greens Competition Classic, Wachesaw East was named the 2007 Myrtle Beach Golf Course of the Year by the Myrtle Beach Golf Course Owners Association. It has also recently received honors for its fairways, customer service and playability by national publications. In short, Wachesaw East is the complete package.

Utilizing five sets of distinct tees, the Clyde Johnston design plays anywhere from 6,933 yards down to 4,995. Regardless, the thought-provoking track was crafted to reward the players, an approach that sticks with players after wrapping up on the signature hole. The green of the par-4, 430-yard No. 18 bends slightly around a small pond, leaving most to consider it one of the course's most challenging holes.

Or, in other words, exactly what you'd expect of a former professional venue.
